

Public event

Climate Strategies and Sustainable Economies in Europe

Saturday, July 2, 2016 - 9:00am – 12:00noon

Florence, Palazzo Vecchio «Sala d'Arme» – Piazza della Signoria with a contribution by

Enel

in cooperation with

City of Florence

9:00am – 10:15am Smart cities: drivers for energy management and quality of life

Chair

Marta Dassù, Senior Director European Affairs, The Aspen Institute

Opening remarks

Dario Nardella, Mayor, City of Florence

Speakers

Enzo Bianco, Mayor, City of Catania; President of the Nation Council, ANCI

William C. Clark, Harvey Brooks Professor of International Science, Public Policy and Human Development, John F. Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University, Cambridge MA

Edoardo Croci, Research Director, Green Economy Observatory IEFE, Bocconi University

Gianluigi Fioriti, Managing Director, Enel Distribution

Linda Lanzillotta, Vice President, Senate of the Italian Republic

Carlo Maria Medaglia, Chief Scientist, Ministry of Environment Land & Sea

Roberto Potì, Director Institutional & Regulatory Affairs/Power International, Edison

Debate

10:15am – 11:45am Making economies more sustainable: climate and energy policies after Paris

Chair

Leonardo Maugeri, Senior Fellow, Geopolitics of Energy Project, Belfer Center for Science and International Affairs - John F. Kennedy School of Government

Speakers

Carlo Carraro, President Emeritus, University of Venice; Professor of Environmental Economics, Ca' Foscari University of Venice

Monica Frassoni, President, European Alliance to Save Energy (tbc)

Jean-Michel Glachant, Director, Florence School of Regulation; Holder, Loyola de Palacio Chair, European University Institute

Francesco La Camera, Director General, Ministry of Environment, Land & Sea

Henry Lee, Senior Lecturer in Public Policy and Jassim M. Jaidah Family;

Director, Environment and Natural Resources Program, Belfer Center for Science and International Affairs, Harvard Kennedy School

Nick Robins, Co-Director, Inquiry into the Design of a Sustainable Financial System, UNEP

Valeria Termini, Commissioner of the Italian Regulatory Authority for Electricity Gas and Water; Vice-President of the Council of European Energy Regulators–CEER

Debate

11:45am – 12noon Conclusions

Gian Luca Galletti, Minister of Environment, Land & Sea

“Italian Sustainable Development in the frame of the European and Global Commitments”